7 de ballana eta Oh, blessed side, that once was pierced, From whence the blood did flow; To cleanse my heart from every state, And make it white as snow.

Oh, hands, that once were rudely nailed To that accursed tree; By faith I now take hold of them, I know Thou leadest me.

Oh, feet that fied to resone me. That brought sweet messages of peace.

And gave me joy within.

Now all my life shall honour Thee. Sufficient is Thy grace;
I'll glory only in Thy Cross.
Until I see Thy Face.

5 Good Old Song of the Cross

EHOLD, belield, the Lamb of Ood
On the Cross! On the Cross!
Fir us He shed His precious Blood,
On the Cross! On the Cross! Oh, hear His all important ory,

Draw near and see your Savieur die,

Gu the Cross! Gu the Cross!

Rehold His arms extended wide. Behold His arms extended wide,
On the Cross I On the Cross I
Behold His hleeding hands and side,
On the Cross I On the Cross I
The can withholds his roys of hight.
The Heavens are clothed in chade

night
While Jesus does with devils fight.
On the Cross! On the Cross!

Come, sinners, see Him lifted up,
On the Cross! On the Cross!
He drinks for you the bitter cup,
On the Cross! On the Cross! The rocks do read, the mountains quake While Jesus doth stonement make.
While Jesus suffers for our sake.
On the Cross | On the Cross |

And now the mighty deed is done, On the Cross! On the Cross! The battle's lought, the victory's won, On the Cross! On the Cross! To Heaven He turns His languid eyes, Then hows His sacred head and dies, On the Cross! On the Cross!

Where'er I go, I'll tell the story, Of the Cross | Of the Cross | In nothing else my soul shall glory, Says the Cross | Says the Cross | Save the Cross! Save the Cross!
Yes, this my coostant theme shall be,
Through time and in sternity.
That Jesus tasted death for me,
Gn the Cross! Gn the Cross!
